

Old Pueblo Archaeology Center's Eleventh "Old Pueblo - Young People" Raffle
To Be Held on March 31, 2010

The next of the ever-popular "Old Pueblo - Young People" fundraising raffles (the eleventh since Old Pueblo Archaeology Center began holding these events in 1998) will be held on March 31, 2010, as a finale for Old Pueblo's celebration of the annual Arizona Archaeology and Heritage Awareness Month.

The "Old Pueblo - Young People" raffle makes it possible for Old Pueblo to provide classroom scholarships to pay archaeology education program fees for children whose parents and schools are too poor to afford what we normally charge for our OPEN3 simulated archaeological dig field trip, our OPENOUT in-classroom education programs for kids, and our guided archaeological site tours for schools. Some of the raffle funds are also used to support Old Pueblo's day-to-day operations including program scheduling, bookkeeping, and indirect costs.

Accompanying this letter are 12 tickets for the annual "Old Pueblo - Young People" raffle. In order for us to distribute our tickets through the U.S. Mail, U.S. postal regulations require that no purchase be required to enter Old Pueblo's drawing. However, I hope you will consider making the recommended donation for these tickets to help us continue offering our education programs. Our suggested donation amounts are $20 for all 12 tickets, $10 for 6, or $2 for a single ticket.

A list of our raffle prizes – and there are some great ones this year! – is posted on our web site at www.oldpueblo.org/raffle.html. If you would like to help us out with our fundraising even more by buying or selling extra raffle tickets, or if you'd like us to send you a listing of the prizes that will be given away please contact us at 520-798-1201 or info@oldpueblo.org.

We really need your assistance to expose underprivileged kids to the joys of archaeology, science, and math, so please consider helping us out with this fundraiser.

Prizes for March 31, 2010, "Old Pueblo - Young People" Raffle

The next of the ever-popular "Old Pueblo- Young People" fundraising raffles (the 11th since Old Pueblo Archaeology Center began holding these events in 1998) will be held again on March 31, 2010, to serve as a finale for Old Pueblo Archaeology Center's celebration of the annual Arizona Archaeology and Heritage Awareness Month.

The "Old Pueblo - Young People" raffle makes it possible for Old Pueblo to provide classroom scholarships to pay archaeology education program fees for children whose parents and schools are too poor to afford what we normally charge for our OPEN3 simulated archaeological dig field trip, our OPENOUT in-classroom education programs for kids, and our guided archaeological site tours for schools. Some of the raffle funds are also used to support Old Pueblo's day-to-day operations including program scheduling, bookkeeping, and indirect costs.

We encourage our supporters to purchase and sell tickets to assist Old Pueblo in our fundraising efforts. Because we plan to offer some of the raffle tickets through the mail, in accordance with U.S. postal regulations no purchase will be required to enter Old Pueblo's drawing. We ask, however, that everyone who obtains raffle tickets send in a donation to Old Pueblo along with your ticket stubs to help us continue offering our education programs. Suggested donation amounts are $20 for 12 tickets, $10 for 6, or $2 for a single ticket. If you would like to help us out with our fundraising even more by buying or selling extra raffle tickets please contact Old Pueblo in Tucson at 520-798-1201 or info@oldpueblo.org.
