In this three-hour workshop expert flintknapper Sam Greenleaf demonstrates and teaches how to make arrowheads and spear points out of obsidian and other stones. He gives insights into how ancient peoples made and used stone tools, and provides hands-on experience in making and recognizing flaked stone artifacts.

All necessary equipment is provided. Limit 6 participants. Persons under age 16 can enroll if parent or guardian also enrolls.

Register for the workshop for hands-on instruction in how to produce a flaked stone tool by using a hammerstone to break a desired size of flake off of a core of rock, thinning and shaping the flake into a projectile point or other stone implement using an antler tool, and finishing the artifact using pressure flaking.

This activity is designed to help modern people understand how early peoples made and used tools, and is not intended to train people how to make crafts for sale.

To register contact Old Pueblo Archaeology Center at 520-798-1201 or info@oldpueblo.org.

Checks, cash, and Visa, MasterCard, Discover, and American Express cards are accepted. (Please do not send cash in the mail.)

CANCELLATIONS less than seven days prior to workshop date are not refundable. Cancellation notice must be received in writing or via email and will be effective as of the date received. Cancellations after final payment date/time will result in forfeiture of all money paid. Donations for reservations made less than five days before a class date are nonrefundable.

Donation for a missed session will be refunded only if Old Pueblo Archaeology Center cancels the workshop.

No refund will be made for leaving a program in progress.
